INTENSE INTEREST IN PRIMARY TODAY

Friends of All the Candidates Are Working Hard—Count May Take Some Time

Intense interest is being manifested in the democratic primary election which is being held all over Madison county today.

The race for Sheriff between Elmer Deatherage and Van Benton seems to be attracting most attention and the friends of each are "working their heads off" for their favorites.

The contest between G. B. Angel and J. D. Goodloe for County Judge is also very keen, with the races for the other offices attracting less interest.

Here in town chief interest centers in the Mayor's race with four entrants, present Mayor L. P. Evans, W. E. Blanton, Jeff D. Mitchell and Robert Golden. All have their friends and many predict a close finish between the four.

There is also much interest in town in the councilmanic races and friends of the candidates are rallying to their standards.

The polls opened at six o'clock and soon crowds were gathering at each voting place. The polls close promptly at four o'clock. It is expected that it may be six or seven o'clock before the complete result is known in the county races, if at all close, as several of the country voting places are some distance from telephones. The city results should be known within an hour of the time the polls close.

Primaries All Over State
The 1921 political fortunes of between 6,000 and 7,000 Kentuckians today hung in the balance with partisans of the major political factions of the state balloting a decision.

At 6 o'clock this morning polls opened in every precinct in the state and men and women of the democratic and republican parties expressed their preference for candidates to carry the party standards in the bi-annual fall campaign. The polls will close at 4 o'clock this afternoon and before midnight the choice of candidates for state senator, representative, circuit judges and county, town and city officials should be known in virtually every district in the state, except perhaps the more isolated sections.

While local fights are of interest to the voters of the town, city and county, the battles which will attract the most attention generally are those for circuit judge, senator and representative. These latter offices are what are known as state offices, candidates in districts having more than one constituency filing declarations and expense accounts with the Secretary of State at Frankfort.

The state is divided into 100 districts for the choice of members of the House of Representatives; 38 for the choice of state senators, and 30 judicial districts. The even numbered senatorial districts today are choosing nominees, the odd numbered districts not electing until 1923. Nominations are being made in every representative and judicial district.

In the race for circuit judges, a number of candidates have taken advantage of the non-partisan judiciary law allowing candidates to file for the nominations on both republican and democratic tickets. In 23 districts, however, nomination on one or the other of the major tickets is equivalent to election. In nine districts the democrats have left an open field to the republican nominee and in fourteen no republican has offered. In one district—the 21st—the republican incumbent is the only candidate filing and he has offered on both tickets. In two divisions of the Jefferson circuit court the incumbents, W. H. Field and Thomas R. Gordon, have offered on both tickets without opposition.

Miss Edith Hunter, of West Virginia, is a guest of relatives in the county.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 6—While Dr. R. G. During the month of July wardens throughout the state, it was announced today, arrested 58 persons on charges of violating the law and in 46 cases obtained convictions.

The wardens, besides making an unusually large number of arrests, confiscated a number of snares, nets, traps, shotguns, and three red foxes.

16-Year-Old Lad Is S. S. Superintendent

Raymond Burchard Taylor 16-years-old, who is the superintendent of the Baptist Sunday school at Cherokee, Washington county, Tenn., is probably the youngest regular Sunday school superintendent in the world. He was unanimously elected to this position on the day following his 16th birthday, and according to his pastor and other members of the congregation, he has made good in every particular. He has been in Sunday school since he could lispe his mother's name, and has been an ardent student of Sunday school methods as well as of the Bible. He plans to enter college in the fall and prepare himself for larger service.

BIDS TO PAVE PIKE ASKED FOR AUGUST 23

Then Contract Will Be Let For Lexington Road Improvement and Rushed

State Highway Engineer Joe S. Boggs, here Saturday to vote in the primary, announced that bids will be opened on August 23 for the construction of seven miles of the Richmond and Lexington pike, as decided upon by the State Highway Department and the Fiscal Court some time ago.

Advertisement setting forth the specifications, needs, etc., will be printed in the Daily Register Monday.

As soon as bids are in and have been thoroughly canvassed, the contract will be let and work started.

This will be good news to everyone, as the Lexington pike is one of the most extensively traveled in the county and it needs repair very badly. When paved for seven miles, it will become almost a boulevard, and this is expected to be but the first step in paving it all the way to the river.

She fired six shots into his body near his home in Brooklyn yesterday. Police say she declared Kinhead was her common-law husband and that he deserted her to marry another woman.

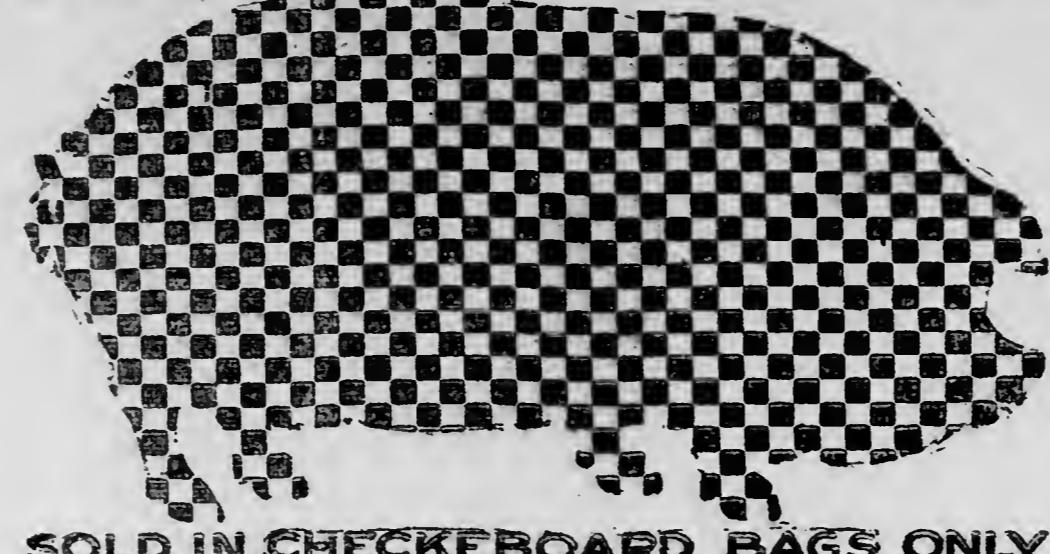

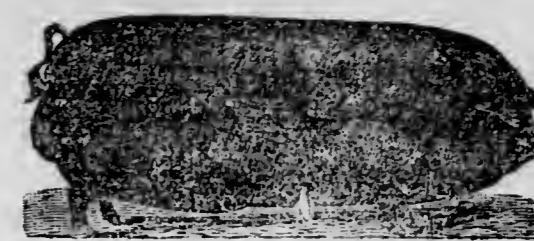

Asked by newspaper men if she regretted the shooting, Miss Stone said "I don't regret it at all. I'm the happiest woman in the world. Ellis Kinhead is now in a place where the dawn comes up like thunder."

LEXINGTON Interested, Of Course

The primary was hot Saturday—very hot. But don't forget that the nominees—whoever they are—must be elected in November. With but one exception that we have noted and it was promptly disclaimed by the party most interested—there has been nothing done or said that would tend to prevent the most cordial feeling for the winners and united support for the big November battle. So altogether now, boys—and girls. The majority has spoken and no matter what the verdict, let's get together as brothers and sisters in Democracy and stand solidly behind the party's nominees.

EVANS IMPROVING; OTHERS ARE ILL

Mrs. L. P. Evans came home from Lexington Saturday to vote in the primary. She said her husband, Mayor Evans, while still very weak, is improving constantly, and slowly regaining his strength. Whether re-elected or not, she said he is profoundly grateful to the many loyal friends who have stuck to him and worked for him at this time.

It is rather an unusual thing that two other Madison county candidates should also have been stricken and be confined to their beds at election time. John D. Goodloe, candidate for the democratic nomination for County Judge, is ill of sciatica, at his home near White's Station, and has been unable to get out for several days.

Dave Powers, candidate for Police Judge in Richmond, is ill of tonsilitis and influenza and has been unable to get out and see his friends in the closing days of the campaign.

HOT, DIZZY FEELING

Atlanta Lady's Uncomfortable and Annoying Condition Relieved, She Says, by Cardui.

Atlanta, Ga.—Miss Alice Frances Young, of 28 East Alexander Street, this city, says: "After entering womanhood, I suffered so much with womanly weakness. My back ached, I would have, at certain times, a hot feeling that seemed to burn my head. Even my shoulders would hurt, and it made me very dizzy and uncomfortable. When the blood would flow to my head—I suppose that was what it was—I would faint and feel so weak."

"I couldn't do my work. I had a good position, and this was surely annoying as well as embarrassing. I would usually have to go home and go to bed. I certainly suffered greatly. "I heard of Cardui, and my mother bought it for me. It was the first and only medicine that ever did me any good for this trouble."

Dizziness, headache, sideache, backache, tired-out feeling and other disagreeable symptoms are often signs of womanly troubles. Thousands of women who formerly suffered from these and similar ailments have found Cardui a valuable remedy.

Cardui is composed only of pure vegetable ingredients which have long been recognized as of medicinal value in the treatment of many diseases and disorders peculiar to women.

Take Cardui.

AN OPEN LETTER

Suffered and How Finally Cured

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I was not able to do my housework and had to lie down most of the time and if I sat up my left side. My monthly periods were irregular, sometimes five or seven months apart and when they did appear would last for two weeks and were very painful. I was sick for about a year and a half and doctorbed but without any improvement.

A neighbor recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to me, and the second day after I started taking it I began to feel better and kept on taking it for several months. Now I keep house and perform all my household duties. You can use these facts as your guide and I will recommend Vegetable Compound to everyone who suffers as I did." — Mrs. J. S. Little, 3455 Livingston St., Philadelphia, Pa.

How much harder the daily tasks of a woman become when she suffers from such distressing symptoms and weakness as did Mrs. Little. No woman should allow herself to get into such a condition because such troubles may be speedily overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for more than forty years has been restoring American women to health.

PAIGE

The Most Beautiful Car in America

It is Changing Buying Habits

The Paige 6-66 model is a truly great motor car because it represents a great economic achievement. It means maximum motoring qualities at minimum cost.

It means sane, sensible investment value instead of extravagance. Therefore it has changed, and will continue to change, buying habits in the fine car field of America.

You have but to look about you for the evidence. The boulevards tell the story. For more than 25% of our total sales have replaced cars costing from one to three thousand dollars more than the Paige.

In short, the fine car buyer has grown weary of paying "excess fare." He now cuts his investment in half—and drives the undisputed champion of road and track. Think it over.

RICHMOND TO PLAY JIM PARK'S TEAM

The Richmond team is to play the Lexington Reos next Thursday. This is one of the strongest nines in the state, but the local lads think they can come out on top with Jim Park on the hill. The Reos have been telling "Jimmy" how they could hit him and he is giving them the chance next Thursday. This is to be the strongest team that the local boys have faced this season or shall face in 1921. The Reos have a long string of victories to their credit and have been humbled but a few times. This game is sure to draw a large crowd. The local team is to have practically the same team in the field that walloped the Danville bunch Thursday. If Jim Park is anything like right the Richmond team ought to give the Reos a hard run for their money. Admission will be charged at the gate.

Heavy Milk Producers

Need Plenty of Water

The importance of supply dairy cows with an abundant supply of clean, cool water during the hot summer months is brought out by experiments which show that the amount of water required is in direct proportion to the amount of milk produced, according to specialists in the dairy department of the College of Agriculture. During the summer sows will require an amount of water equal to about three times the amount of milk produced. In one case a cow giving 27 pounds of milk drank 77 pounds of water each day. The same cow drank but 15 pounds daily when giving no milk. A cow producing 100 pounds of milk each day drank more than 250 pounds of water. Eighty-seven percent of milk produced by a cow and nearly three-fourths of her body is water, the specialists say. The amount of water required by her is determined by the amount of milk she is yielding, the kind of feed she is receiving and weather conditions.

Announcing The New Buick "Four"

A Thoroughbred Four, Completing the Famed Buick Line

The new Four-Cylinder Buick, here announced, is a thoroughbred—a pedigreed car well worthy of its name.

Down to the very last detail, this new model possesses every quality of enduring serviceability, complete comfort, and distinctive appearance that have always characterized Buick automobiles.

The advent of this new Four makes the Buick 1922 line complete. It offers to purchasers of a car of this size all the quality and service that go to make up the name "Buick."

The engine, of course, is of the time-tested Buick Valve-in-Head type. The year-after-year concentration of Buick's engineering skill and experience in building Valve-in-Head motors assures the highest standard of performance obtainable today.

Every other unit is of a quality equal to the power plant. The whole assembly constitutes a perfectly balanced chassis which is of typical Buick construction. The equipment of Cord Tires is merely evidence of the quality which characterizes the entire car.

Two open and two closed body types mounted on the Buick built chassis comprise the new series.

Even the most casual inspection of the details of design and workmanship will reveal that full measure of quality which motorists have learned to associate with Buick.

Obviously a high grade automobile—a genuine Buick production—the prices listed below make this great Four even greater. A value such as this is possible only because of the combination of Buick engineering skill devoted to the one ideal of quality, Buick production facilities developed over nearly a quarter of a century, and Buick's nation-wide distribution and service organization.

The Buick Motor Company is proud of the Buick Four. It has the faith of long experience in this newest addition to its line. It places upon it unreservedly the Buick guarantee carried by every Buick automobile produced. That its confidence is well placed is manifested not only by the keen interest with which motorists have awaited this announcement, but also the advance orders placed by distributors, dealers, and the general public.
